

Welcome to the KOOL KATS AND JAZZY HOUNDS BENEFIT

Sunday, June 12th, 2011

www.BJSCharity.org

Event Program

$3.00

The Brookfield Jazz Society (BJS) welcomes you to Sawa's Old Warsaw for the Kool Kats and Jazzy Hounds Benefit. There is non-stop jazz from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. featuring seven different bands. All of the money raised today will go the Anderson Animal Shelter (AAS) located in South Elgin to help provide a safe home for stray and unwanted animals until they are adopted.

Personally, I would like to thank all the musicians playing today who have generously given up their time and talents to entertain us. Without them there would be no event. I'd also like to thank the BJS and AAS volunteers who will be working throughout the day. A final word of thanks also goes to all those people who kindly donated silent auction items and raffle prizes.

On a final note, I would like to thank the other members of the BJS Charity Team, who have worked tirelessly for the last three months to make this event happen: Lee Goode, Perry Huntoon, Marc aka Network XXIII and a special thank you to Anderson Animal Shelter volunteer Amanda Seidel.

Jan Tiele

BJS President and Charity Team Chair

About the Musicians

Pullman Conductors of Jazz

The Pullman Conductors of Jazz have played for the Brookfield Jazz Society several times, including a previous performance at Sawa's Old Warsaw for the Society's first Jazz on the Road event. This well-established 5-piece band play jazz in a variety of Dixieland, Traditional, Swing, Ragtime, Blues styles, with a penchant for "railroad tunes (hence their name)." You can check the band out online at www.PullmanConductors.com.

Chicago Outskirts

The Chicago Outskirts is a seventeen-piece jazz ensemble founded in 2003 and comprised entirely of women from across the Chicago area. The members come from as far west as Aurora and as far east as South Bend, IN. Most of the members play in other jazz groups in the area.

The idea for the band was born when two of the members met at FitzGerald's Night Club in Berwyn in March of 2003. Jenny Yuhasz, a drummer from South Bend, was there to see her brother, trumpeter Danny Barber, play with the Chicago Jazz Orchestra. Jenny sat in for a few numbers with the CJO. Linda Kottis, a tenor sax player from Naperville, was in the audience that night and began comparing notes with Jenny. They decided that an all-female big band would be a great idea.

The main purpose of forming the band was to give women jazz musicians in the area more opportunity to play big band jazz, both in rehearsal and in performance. Visit the band's website at www.ChicagoOutskirts.com.

About the Musicians (continued)

Chris Madsen Trio

The Chris Madsen Trio played for the BJS earlier this year and were a huge success, playing a mixture of modern jazz and tunes associated with the great cornet player Bix Beiderbecke, which are arranged by Chris for his trio of saxophone, guitar and bass.

Saxophonist, arranger and composer Chris serves as Jazz Faculty member at Northwestern University in Evanston, Illinois, Director of Jazz at Midwest Young Artists in Highwood, IL, and he has coordinated the Jazz program for the National High School Music Institute in Evanston since 2009.

Madsen spent three years in New York, performing with and writing for such jazz masters as Wynton Marsalis, Victor Goines, Wycliffe Gordon, Kenny Washington, Jon Gordon, and many others.

After graduating from Juilliard in 2005, Madsen made the decision to move back to his homeland of Chicago in 2006 and has since been artistically involved with much of the local talent, including the Ron Perrillo Quartet, the Rob Parton and Tom Matta Big Bands, the Mulligan Mosaics Big Band, and many others. Without doubt, Chris Madsen is becoming one of the fastest-growing talents on the local jazz scene. You can check out Chris' website at www.ChrisMadsen.net.

Mark O'Connor Quintet

The Mark O'Connor Quintet played for the BJS in July 2010, playing their brand of modern jazz with enormous energy and warmth. Saxophonist Mark's debut CD Mirage, spent eight weeks on the national jazz radio charts and garnered much praise. O'Connor has performed with such notables as Rufus Reid, Arturo Sandoval, Henry Butler, Steve Turre and Joe Williams. Mark's quintet, formed in 2001, has performed at numerous venues throughout the Midwest including The Green Mill, The Elbo Room, The Skokie Theatre, The Chicago Cultural Center and The Rogers Park Jazz Festival in Chicago. You can visit Chris online at www.MarkOconnorJazz.com.

The Eddie Stevens 3 is one of Chicagoland's hottest new jazz groups. Formed by three veteran Chicago musicians, their swinging sound and tight group interplay is amazing and their chamber-jazz sound is reminiscent of the classic Red Norvo, Nat "King" Cole and Jimmy Giuffre trios. The band is made up of Mike Daly (bass/vocals), Steve Koerner (saxophone/flute/vocals) and Chester Tocha (guitar). While the Eddie Stevens 3 has not yet played for the Brookfield Jazz Society, the individual musicians have performed for the BJS as members of other bands. Today, the trio will be joined by vocalist Amy Yassinger. You can check out their website at www.EddieStevens3.com.

John Avila Trio

The John Avila Trio features guitar, bass, and drums. They play classic instrumental Jazz, Blues, and Standards - the music made famous by Miles Davis, Charlie Parker, Sonny Rollins, Cannonball Adderly and many other great jazz musicians. You can visit their website at www.ValiantMusic.com/jat.

Marshall Vente Tropicale Duo

Marshall Vente has played twice for the BJS with his trio and today he will play Latin jazz duets with guitarist Glenn Reitsma. Marshall is one of the finest jazz Chicagoland. The larger than life tone he draws from the instrument, and the harmonic imagination that colors everything he plays, distinguishes him from other jazz pianists.

Marshall Vente's long-standing love of Brazilian and Latin music has been showcased since 1992 on his radio show "Jazz Tropicale," which is broadcast every Sunday at 10:00 p.m. on WDCB radio 90.9 FM. "It's a jazz show with a few palm trees," Vente tells his listeners. Learn more about Marshall Vente and all his different size combos at www.MarshallVente.com.

The Upper and Lower Banquet Rooms has been a generous donation by Stuart Sawa of Sawa's Old Warsaw Restaurant
www.SawasOldWarsaw.com

Sawa's provides the best Authentic Polish food buffet in Chicagoland. Open every day of the week except Mondays. Visit them for casual dining, banquets, birthday parties, funeral luncheons, and many events.

Anderson Animal Shelter was incorporated in 1966 as the Humane Society of North Central Illinois. In the 1980s the shelter received a generous donation from the Anderson Trust that prompted a name change.

Over the years the shelter has transitioned from a traditional community animal shelter to one of the most progressive humane societies of its kind. In 2001 an on-site veterinary clinic was added to provide health care for shelter animals and to assist in the goal of spaying/neutering all adopted dogs and cats before they leave the shelter. In 2003 the shelter opened a public low-cost spay/neuter and vaccination clinic. The shelter operates under a low-kill philosophy and is dedicated to eliminating the euthanasia of healthy, adoptable animals. Every adoptable animal at the shelter is cared for as long as it takes to locate a loving forever home.

Anderson Animal Shelter currently serves approximately 2,550 animals each year. They collaborate with public and private organizations and individuals to shelter, care for and promote the adoption of stray and unwanted companion animals. They advocate for the compassionate and humane treatment of these animals through direct care, humane education and community outreach programs. Anderson Animal Shelter adheres to the highest ethical standards, and is dedicated to creating a community environment that eliminates the euthanasia of healthy, adoptable animals. The AAS website is found at www.AndersonAnimalShelter.org.

About the “Kool Kats and Jazzy Hounds Benefit” Logo

The logo (see front cover) is for the Kool Kats and Jazzy Hounds Benefit created by our very own Marc aka Network XXIII with the assistance of illustrator for the Chicago Jazz Magazine Charley Krebs. The artwork in the middle is derived from the “Jazzy Hounds” Print (shown left) that is actually an item available for bidding as part of the silent auction. The outer ring has the title of the event along with the charity website that is enclosed in the same border used on the original Brookfield Jazz society logo.

Visit us online at www.BJSCharity.org.

About the Jazz Bands in The Silent Auction

These two bands have donated their services as silent auction items. If interested, you will be bidding on the band to play for a maximum of two hours at your private party or event in the Chicagoland area. If you are the winning bidder, you will have six months to liaise with the band and fix a mutually agreeable place, date and time for their performance.

The Joel Moore Quartet

The Joel Moore Quartet has twice appeared at the Brookfield Jazz Society and is an exciting band that features the leader on saxophone and a piano/bass/drums rhythm section. The quartet was formed in 2005 and is dedicated to the performance of creative, original contemporary jazz compositions and inventive interpretations of standards. Check out Joel's website at www.JoelMooreQuartet.com.

Marbin

Marbin started their musical journey back in 2007 when saxophonist Danny Markovitch and guitar wizard Dani Rabin met and formed the band back then in Israel. It wasn't long before they decided to relocate in Chicago, where they launched their first album that same year, in 2009. The self titled album became very quickly "the talk of the town", receiving praise from an array of well respected publications.

Soon after, Markovitch and Rabin found themselves collaborating with Paul Wertico, the seven time Grammy Award winner on his critically acclaimed album "Impressions of a City," which received 4.5 stars from Downbeat magazine. Marbin's music is unique and difficult to categorize - being more in the jazz-rock style, than straight ahead jazz.
